

Support for Caregivers Navigating Substance Use Disorders

Caring for a loved one with a substance use disorder is challenging and often there are many setbacks. Family First works with families to overcome these challenges and the stigma of addiction, so that families can find sturdier ground.

The extent and toll of substance use disorders on families is significant

20.7M

People age 12 and older need treatment for a substance use disorder

11%

Of patients admitted for substance use treatment are elderly

15%

Teens having used illicit or injection drugs

Our expertise reaches beyond substance use disorder to include:

MENTAL HEALTH

ELDERCARE

FAMILY DYNAMICS

LEGAL ISSUES

CHILD & ADOLESCENT WELLBEING