Annual Transgender Surgery Fund

This scholarship-like program provides direct financial assistance to trans folks who cannot afford their gender-affirming surgery.

- Applications are open beginning November 1. The deadline to apply is November 30 by 11:59pm EST.
- In order to apply, you must identify as transgender and have financial need that prevents you from obtaining your gender-affirming surgery with a US-based surgeon. We accept applications for any gender-affirming procedure. If this surgery is necessary to your transition, you may apply.

HRT Access Fund

Through Plume, this scholarship-like program provides direct financial assistance to trans folks who cannot afford their gender-affirming hormone replacement therapy (HRT).

- We accept applications during several periods throughout the year. Visit www.pointofpride.org for application deadlines and to apply.
- In order to apply, you must identify as transgender, and have financial need and/or lack of access to trans-competent healthcare providers that prevents you from obtaining HRT.
- You must be 18+ years of age and live in certain states. Visit www.pointofpride.org for eligibility.

Electrolysis Support Fund

This scholarship-like program provides assistance towards permanent hair removal services for trans femme folks who cannot otherwise afford them.

- We accept applications during multiple periods throughout the year. Visit www.pointofpride.org for application deadlines and to apply.
- In order to apply, you must identify on the feminine spectrum (this program supports AMAB trans people including MTF, trans femme, and non-binary identities) and have financial need.
- We accept applications for hair removal services on the face, neck, or an area of your body in preparation for a gender-affirming surgery.

Free Chest Binders

This program provides free chest binders (specially-designed chest compression garments) to any trans person who needs one and cannot afford or safely obtain one.

- We accept applications on a rolling basis; you may apply at any time. Requests are added to our waiting list and fulfilled first-come, first-served.
- Shipping is free and included. Packaging is extremely discrete. The sender's name is "Point of Pride." Nothing with the words "LGBT" or "trans" appear on the packaging.
