Generosity Path

Why Partner with Generosity Path?

You have a God-sized vision for your ministry and a desire to see your givers more engaged. While Generosity Path can't claim to make your givers start donating more money to your cause, our retreats have brought together thousands of givers (in more than 60 countries and over 30 languages) across the globe. Our vision is that God's people will experience the words of Jesus – that it is more blessed to give than to receive – and become known around the world for their joyful sacrificial giving. We would love to bless you and your givers by inviting them to take part in one of our Journey of Generosity retreats.

To be clear, we do not want anything from your community; we want something for your community: a life filled with joy and peace, free from anxiety and fear; a life of open-handed generosity.

Our passion and love at Generosity Path is to help business owners, business leaders, and professionals accept Jesus' invitation to relationship and move onto a path of generosity with joyful anticipation. Because Generosity Path is fully and privately funded by a small group of private Christian donors, we don't fundraise at our events nor do we allow others to do so. This is a safe and unique opportunity for people to talk about money and possessions without any concern that there will be an appeal for funds.

Our prayer is that your givers become more sacrificially generous, giving exponentially more than they give today. Our prayer is that your ministry is unleashed to become all that God wants it to be.

What is a Journey of Generosity?

A Journey of Generosity is an overnight retreat for 10-20 givers focused on the joy of living generously. It includes stories of generous givers, interactive discussions, reflection opportunities, and Bible study that enables participants to process the biblical message of generosity. It is story-driven and experiential in nature. We do not teach or prescribe. Instead, we allow each participant the freedom to experience their unique journey with God around generosity.

What would it look like to partner with Generosity Path?

- 1 | Identify a point person from your organisation.
- 2 | Have your leadership team attend a Journey of Generosity.
- 3 | Designate your representatives to be trained as Journey of Generosity facilitators for your network.

Generosity Path will provide all of the training and materials to you at no cost. You and your team will handle the logistics and costs of each retreat. The Generosity Path team is available to answer any questions you have along the way. We request you register each JOG so we can ensure quality through our follow-up surveys, and so our givers can celebrate the impact of their investment.

What some organisations have said about partnering with Generosity Path:

Being asked (on a Journey of Generosity retreat) to underline a passage in 2 Corinthians I realised how little I understood or, being the leader of a charity, mimicked the way Paul asks for and talks about money.

ED, HOPE INTO ACTION, UK

I have hosted over 8 Journeys of Generosity in different European countries and I have never walked away without experiencing the Spirit working in the hearts of the participants. The fruit is not only in the increased generosity, but also in new relationships among the givers. The program is very well designed to create a safe environment for the Spirit to do His work in the givers' hearts. If we want to see a movement of God in our country, we need to have more Journeys of Generosity.

ADAM, CZECH REPUBLIC

Generosity Path is a unique and inspirational organisation, aligned with our own vision and values. We believe the Journey of Generosity retreat adds an important dimension to philanthropic planning, providing the tools and space for reflection and discernment, and exploring the depths of what it means to live a biblically generous life. We're excited to partner with the wonderful team at Generosity Path to help inspire generosity at a global level.

DANIEL JONES, STEWARDSHIP, UK

The Journey of Generosity is absolutely providing the complimentary value to what we are teaching in Crown today. We basically deal with the mind on how to become a good steward and JOG deals with the heart and this is such a perfect pair-up.
