

DOUGLAS FIR

Douglas Fir's botanical name is Pseudotsugi menziesii. These fence pickets, rails, and posts are one of the most (blank). It is produced from trees in the Pacific Northwest region. Alta Forest Products manufactures ALTAMIT from Douglas Fir.

Altamit

Wax End Seal: Reduces splitting, checking, and protects against UV damage.

Resists Insects: Chemically treated to resist attacks by termites and other insects.

Stained and Ready to Install: Pre-Stained with oil-based protectant. Available in 2 colors and protects against UV damage.

Versatile: Combine boards, rails, and PostMaster⁺ steel posts, which can be easily installed into many popular fence styles.

Natural and Sustainable: Sourced from managed Pacific Northwest forests.

Thicker: $\frac{3}{4}$ " board cut thicker to increase stability and reduce warping

Warranty: 10 years

Grading: #2, no prior selection

Dimensions: $\frac{3}{4}$ " x 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ " - 6'

Surfacing: Rough Sawn

Topping: Flat Top | Dog Ear