

THE STATE OF CONSTRUCTION

MOVING BEYOND CHALLENGES

Everyone knows the industry has been up against challenges, but construction professionals have shown their resilience by coming up with solutions this year.

We surveyed our users and here's what they had to say about 2021 and their plans for the future.

INDUSTRY CHALLENGES

FOCUSING ON SOLUTIONS

of survey respondents say labor shortages are their #1 industry concern for the next 3-5 years shared that their haulers aren't interested in technology of US contractors reported difficulty finding workers in June 2021²

of construction employees are hesitant to try new technology³ When up against labor shortages you need to do more - with less. 40% of Trux users reported fewer phone calls as a positive change

Trux users report that ensuring haulers quicker payment cycles, undisputable tracking, and providing initial incentives helped get them on board

Users credited Trux Find for connecting them with new haulers this year

It took less than a month for 71% of users to start seeing positive results from Trux

90% OF USERS ARE CONSIDERING MORE TECH IN 2022

YOUR WORDS, NOT OURS

- More than 50% of construction professionals prefer to go to their industry colleagues for industry news, information, and solutions.
- ► Tech is on everyone's mind -- well 90% to be precise. That's the percentage of your peers that are considering adding more technology in 2022.
- Lots of technology is already in use: 85% leverage GPS, 67% use accounting software, and 54% use equipment monitoring - just to name a few.

YOUR PEERS ARE LEA INTO TECH IN 2022

Wondering what benefits to expect?

Trux users benefit in two main ways: visibility & efficiency.

EASILY VERIFY TRUCK AND HAULER LOCATIONS INCREASED

ACCESS TO HAULERS

EASIER TO DISPATCH TRUCKS FOR JOBS COMMUNICATION SCHEDULING IS EASIER

READY TO GET AHEAD IN 2022?

TAKE THIS 5 MINUTE INTERACTIVE ASSESSMENT TO FIND OUT IF TECHNOLOGY COULD HELP YOU.

TAKE ASSESSMENT