Lovely sunset evening...

A photograph of a modern building with a large glass facade. The upper portion of the facade is a wall of windows that perfectly reflects the industrial structure of a factory or refinery, showing tall chimneys, pipes, and complex machinery. Below this, the ground floor features large glass doors and windows that offer a view into a brightly lit interior, possibly a cafe or restaurant. Outside, on a paved plaza, a group of people is gathered, some standing near a wooden table. In the foreground, another wooden table stands on a brick-paved area. The scene is captured during the day, with a clear sky and natural light.

ALUMNI WEEKEND 2021

SAVE THE DATES! OCTOBER 22 - 23, 2021

LITERARY MAGAZINE

The Literary Magazine activity allows the student body to express themselves through creative writing and drawings.

ORIGINAL GREEN PONDERERS!!!

Can you imagine that 40-some years have gone by since we were writing, drawing art & manually design the pages of the initial: The Green Ponderer Literary Magazines...

This covid 1.5 yrs plus new surges has been challenging; and it occurs to me that what a perfect time for an ALUMNI VOICE from US!

This was the place where we shared dreams & visions; as well as secrets, hurts and love.

Think of all the things that have CHANGED since these days... I fondly remember the Upper School English teacher, Mrs Jean Rand taking me to the Columbia University Scholastic Literary Magazine Conference NYC where she earned her Teaching degree. Back in 1978 the initial magazine was put together using the mimeograph & one single side pages! The next issue was manually typed with help from the Administrative staff on a Selectric Typewriter!

What do YOU remember??? Are YOU still writing, drawing, dreaming? Would you be partners with me to give SHARE & SHOUT OUT from our club, The Green Ponderers to let Moravian know what we are doing these days.... Are you at a new crossroads of life, an empty nester, experiencing losses, impacted by covid or 20th Anniversary of WTC911? Do you have an art online, in a gallery; or publishing? Anything goes from art, creative, to math, science & STEM endeavors. What is your POV about technology? What do you remember 40 yo: Texas Instruments, wearing jeans on Wed, or what we were learning in Ms Brill, Dr O'Donnell or Mrs Golden's classes from the brain & drama; to Camus & existentialism; to women & world???

If you're off for a long holiday weekend, or could find a moment to create 1 page with something that would be Green Ponderer, Literary-esque from a photo montage, art, greetings, favorite positivity quote or lyrics; poem, you with your children so important; are you in a new class, fly drones, anything goes... Simply take a pic, email back to me with your name then & now (if it changed), your email, a memory, before/after, or some thing in the spirit of the Literary Magazine!!!

Also in your reply let me know if you what your interest would be to team together, digitally, zoom or other ways to bring the power of art & word, to rekindle memories & envision dreams & future; while accepting the present & contemplation via art, expression & word.

I've digitized our copies of The Green Ponderer, and would like to see if you would be interested in making a Green Ponderer Literary Alumni presentation. What we began 40 something years ago is ongoing, the Class 2020 did a wonderful digital literary magazine with photographs.

Covers (L) Tracy Lisk 1980 & (R) do you know who drew? 1981.

I look forward to learning of YOUR interest, abilities PLUS a SHARE & SHOUT OUT Greeting page to ignite the spark & rekindle via MA Alumni!

Dear Jean —

It's very hard to believe that 4 years have gone by.
I've seen you grow into a delightful young lady.
Keep that determination,
drive and goad with going.
Buena suerte en el futuro.

Con cariño
