

Horse Week presented by Boehringer Ingelheim Film Contest Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Horse Week film contest looking for?

We are looking for the most inspiring, heartwarming, educational, humorous, and creative horse videos you can come up with! We want you to use your best storytelling skills to captivate riders, horse-lovers, and people brand new to horses.

How old do I have to be to enter?

You must be 18 years or older to submit a film to the Horse Week Film Contest.

Is this contest open internationally?

You must be a U.S. citizen to enter.

How many times can I submit content for the film contest in the short and long form categories?

There is no limit to the number of entries.

Participants can submit more than one submission in both or either category.

What is the film length is legible to enter?

Films between 5-45 minutes are legible to win, one prize of $7,500

How do I enter and submit my content?

<https://share.hsforms.com/1u2JefQnrTIWtWNSVxzgJ9A4axz3>

What type of video file do I need to submit?

Your video entry should be in .mp4 h264 format for submissions and .mov pro res 422 format for the finals.

Does it matter where my footage has been featured or shown before?

The Horse Week Film Contest is looking for new and exciting film content. If your film has been featured on Hulu, Netflix, YouTube, or any other platform where it received more than a limited viewership, it is not eligible for this contest.