

International Dementia Conference

General Cancellation Policy

Cancellations will not be accepted unless made in writing by email to the event organisers at conference@hammond.com.au.

Cancellations received in writing on or before 31 July 2022 will be subjected to a refund less 25%. No registration refunds will be made after this date for any reason.

As an alternative to cancellation, your registration may be transferred to another person in your organisation. Details of transfers/substitutes must be notified to the event organisers no later than 5 September 2022. No changes or cancellations will be accepted after this date.

You acknowledge and agree that you will take all reasonable steps to mitigate and insure against any loss you may suffer as a result of the unforeseen cancellation of the Event pursuant to NSW or Commonwealth Government public health orders or mandates.

Invoice terms are 30 days from creation. Please note that by purchasing, you are accepting these terms and conditions. This cancellation policy will apply whether or not payment has been received.

You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility to ensure that you comply with any public health orders or mandates issued by either the NSW or Commonwealth Governments in force at the time of the Event including any orders relating to COVID-19 vaccination requirements. No refund of any moneys paid by you to HammondCare will be given in the event you are unable to attend due to your non-compliance with said public health orders or mandates.

Please note that the event organisers reserve the right to change the speakers and timings.

Concurrent Speakers

In addition to the above, you acknowledge that all presentations are to be in person and are not pre-recorded.
