COURSE BREAKDOWN:

Public Administration

This module provides students with the necessary knowledge and skills to become efficient incumbents of posts and officials in the provincial and local departments of the public sector. Public Administrators work for the common good. In order to serve the community and effect positive change, you first need to lay the foundation by educating yourself in all sectors; the skills learned in Public Administration are transferable far past the bounds of the career. Disciplines such as Project Management and Program Management derive necessary competencies from Public Administration.

Entrepreneurship & Business Management

Learn the basics of how to draw up a business plan. This module teaches you all the different aspects of starting your own business, by offering a holistic approach to entrepreneurial studies. Once you're accredited, you will be ready to facilitate the streamlining of all business processes while working inside of an allocated budget.

Municipal Administration

Municipal Administration is the practice of delegating work to all the officials of the local government unit, under the supervision, direction and control of governmental authorities.

Introductory Finance

Learn the basics of the Finance field with this entry level course.

Public Relations

The Public Relations module teaches students how to properly represent a business and brand to consumers. This subject analyzes how and why customers perceive a business in a certain way.

Communication

Learn the different disciplines of communication, motivation, and self-image as tools in the organisation. You will also be taught how to properly write business communication documents.

Public Finance

This module uncovers the role of government in distributing governmental grants, funds and other incomes. Public finance is the management of a country's revenue, expenditures, and debt.

Public Law

The Public law module studies the relations between legal persons and a government, between different branches of governments, and relationships between persons who threaten a society.

Computer Practice N4

This subject covers all the necessary programs a student will need to master in order to be effective in the modern day office environment. Learn how to navigate Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access, and basic internet and email functionality.
