ThisWay Global and CHC: Creating Healthier Communities
Partner to Promote Unbiased Hiring and Equity

The partnership will promote 1 million new jobs through ThisWay Global's unbiased hiring platform with $1 per job with a shared goal of $1 million donated in the first year to CHC to advance health equity.

Alexandria, VA & Austin TX (March 24, 2022) – ThisWay Global, Inc., a technology focused on sourcing and matching qualified talent to jobs without bias, and nationwide health equity nonprofit CHC: Creating Healthier Communities today announced “1 Million Jobs for 1 Million Dollars” campaign. To advance CHC's health equity work ThisWay Global will donate $1 for every job posted through this partnership.

“We're proud to combat bias and expand our mission of sourcing and matching all people to all jobs,” said Angela Hood, founder and CEO of ThisWay Global Inc. “CHC is an ideal partner for us, with their nationwide network and focus on equity. Together, we're helping people get jobs they will love while helping employers fill open roles; making a positive impact in the world.”

CHC will share this unbiased hiring partnership with its vast network of more than 5,000 organizations, including businesses of all sizes.

ThisWay's technology will bring together this vast network of organizations and the people associated with each, enabling diverse and qualified talent to apply for open roles while simultaneously ensuring they have an unbiased and fair recruitment process that will enable diversity.

This partnership leverages skills based sourcing and matching that mitigates unconscious bias. ThisWay's database of over 150 million U.S. candidates and network of partner communities supports diverse candidates, including people who are living with disabilities, veterans, and representing various ethnicities, LGBTQ+ communities and more.

“We're excited to launch this new partnership with ThisWay Global that advances our mutual equity goals,” said Shelley Hayes, chief engagement officer at CHC. “CHC focuses on the social determinants of health—the underlying factors like income, employment, and access that impact health and wellbeing. We work with thousands of partners to address the barriers to good health and equity and create healthier communities for all people, and we look forward to helping one million people find jobs in an equitable, unbiased way.”
